C O U N C I L M A N - W A R D 3

Councilman Falio Leyba-Martinez is proud to serve Camden's 3rd Ward, where he works hard to support families, improve neighborhoods, and make sure residents' voices are heard. His family has owned a business in Camden for over 30 years, and he grew up helping run it. That experience taught him about leadership, hard work, and caring for the community.

He graduated from Camden Catholic High School, earned an associate's degree from Camden County College, and a Bachelor's degree in Urban Studies from Rutgers University-Camden.

Before joining City Council, he served on the Camden Parking Authority and the Camden School Board. He now chairs the Municipal Appointment Committee and serves on the Finance Committee.

He is passionate about clean streets, safe neighborhoods, and fair opportunities for all. Inspired by the struggles of people facing language barriers, he works to make sure everyone in Camden feels seen, heard, and supported.
