FIRST TIME HOME BUYER PROGRAM FACT SHEET

All applicant(s) interested in the City of Camden’s First Time Homebuyer program must first complete a mandatory counselling program with a HUD certified counselling agency. For a list of HUD certified housing counseling agencies, please use this link HUD Certified Counseling Agencies.

Counselling is MANDATORY and must be completed PRIOR to signing an Agreement to purchase. Any buyer who signs an agreement to purchase prior to completing the required counselling requirement will be ineligible for assistance.

The First Time Homebuyer’s Program assists eligible applicants with the necessary financial assistance to purchase affordable single-family residential properties in the City of Camden.

(Affordable housing for the purpose of this program is defined as housing with an initial purchase price that does not exceed 95% of the median purchase price for single-family housing in Camden County areas and has an estimated appraised value at acquisition that does not exceed the above limit.)

Applicants(s) can apply for a “one-time” deferred loan of up to $14,999 to assist eligible families with payment of Closing Costs & Down Payment/Principal Reduction. NOTE: In accordance with Federal Regulations established by the U.S. Dept. of Housing & Urban Development (HUD), a financial analysis and subsequent underwriting of all applications will determine the final subsidy amount.

1. A maximum amount of $5,000 to be applied toward Closing Costs
2. All remaining funds must be applied toward Down Payment/Principal Reduction of the final mortgage amount.

10. Birth certificate for all household members under the age of 18.

NOTE: Federal Guidelines require the City to take an active role with assessing the capacity of all applicants to sustain the financial obligations associated with home ownership. Although not intended to substitute for the formal underwriting performed by the financial institution, the outcome of the City's review may affect the applicant's eligibility for assistance under this Program.

Seller's Responsibility

The City's assistance to the applicant(s) is contingent on the seller(s) acceptance of these terms:

1. Certificate of Continued Occupancy (CCO) – The current owners (seller's) of the subject property must apply for a (CCO) from the City's Building Bureau & provide a copy to Housing Services.
2. Two (2) Year Roof Warranty – All existing roof(s) must be warranted by a qualified roofing contractor for leakage for a term of two years from date of issuance. All warranties must be transferrable. A copy must be provided to Housing Services

Buyer's Responsibility

The Buyer is responsible to provide the following:

1. Termite Certification
2. Certified Home Inspection Report

Note: The City has established a policy whereby all applications submitted under this program are settled within 120 (calendar) days from the date of their submission. In conformance with this Policy, the City reserves the right to withdraw assistance from any project where either construction or processing delays (not directly attributed to the City) exceed this period.

NOTE: ALTHOUGH DUPLEX PROPERTIES ARE ELIGIBLE FOR ASSISTANCE UNDER THIS PROGRAM, THEY ARE SUBJECT TO ADDITIONAL INSPECTIONS.

PROPERTY SETTLEMENT:

Formal Notice of Commitment from Lender – No commitment for any City assistance will precede a formal notice of approval from the private lending institution of the applicant's mortgage loan application and certification (by Building Bureau) of the satisfactory completion of all repairs.

Note: The City requires a minimum of twenty-one (21) business days notice from the date of its commitment for holding settlement.

At settlement the City of Camden, require copies of the following documents:

1. Mortgage
2. Promissory Note
3. Property Deed
4. Closing Disclosure
5. Signed Termite Certification
6. Signed Purchase Order
7. $65.00 Check to record 2nd mortgage (made payable to "Camden County Clerk")

Note: Applicant(s) at settlement must sign all city documents executed under this program (mortgage lien, promissory note and program agreement).

Mortgage Lien: The Title Company will record a mortgage lien evidencing the subsidy amount awarded to the purchaser(s). This lien will document the purchaser's commitment to use the property as their principal residence for a term of five (5) years from the date of its recording. If any sale or transfer of the property should occur within the initial five (5) years, the entire amount of the subsidy must be repaid to the City. After year 5, the lien amount will revert to $0, and the property owner will be required to pay the lien cancellation fee.

Subordination Request: No Subordination Request will be permitted within the first year of purchase. Any requests to subordinate the FTHP subsidy by a superior lien holder during the term of the FTHP mortgage will require the following conditions:

- The requesting agency/lender must provide a copy of the most recent appraisal of the subject property, or a statement of value certified by a licensed appraiser
- The requesting agency must provide a copy of the property search listing all outstanding liens.
- The total indebtedness that includes the refinanced loan amount, other liens in a priority position & the FTHP subsidy cannot exceed 95% of the appraised value.
- If approved by the city, the requesting agency/ lender must prepare the subordination agreement and pay all applicable recording fees.

APPEAL PROCESS:

The respective applicant must submit all requests appealing the rejection of a First Time Homebuyer Program application in writing within seven (7) working days from the date of the City's letter notifying them of the initial decision. All (written) appeals must be sent to the Division of Housing Services (DHS) and contain justification for reversal of the original funding decision. Upon its receipt, the DHS will convene a meeting of the committee comprised of City officials who will discuss the merits of the appeal followed by a letter advising the applicant(s) of the committee's decision. A successful appeal will result in the immediate re-instatement of the subject application while an opinion supporting the original decision will render the file closed.
