

ANGEL FUENTES

C O U N C I L P R E S I D E N T

Angel Fuentes was born in Puerto Rico and moved to Camden, New Jersey, when he was 10 years old. He graduated from Woodrow Wilson High School and became the first in his family to earn a college degree. Inspired by his mother's values of helping others, Mr. Fuentes has spent his life serving the Camden community.

He worked many jobs, including at Cooper Hospital and as a family therapist. He was first elected to Camden City Council in 1994 and served as Council President for many years. He also served as a New Jersey State Assemblyman, helping pass laws to improve Camden.

Mr. Fuentes has helped lead many community programs and serves on several boards. He is proud to support youth, families, and Latino leadership. In 2022, he was elected Council President again and continues to serve today. He is also a proud father of two children, Josuel and Mariangelis.
